This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Valuation of Shares and right of Pre-emption.

ARTICLE 21. The Directors shall annually, in the month of December, in each year, make a valuation under their hands of the shares in the Athenæum, and cause the same to be recorded in the records of the Proprietors. And in the exercise of their prior right to purchase, retained by the Proprietors, fifty per cent. of the last valuation shall be deemed and taken as the appraised value to be paid by the Proprietors, as the full consideration in such purchase:—And when any share is for sale, it shall be in the discretion of the Directors to exercise, in behalf of the Proprietors, the right of pre-emption.

Directors shall establish General Regulations.

ARTICLE 22. The Directors shall establish such general regulations for the well ordering and managing of the concerns of the Library, and other apartments of the Athenæum, and for the government of the same, as in their opinion shall be best calculated to secure to Proprietors and subscribers the full enjoyment of the privileges and advantages of the institution:—and every person violating any of the rules and regulations thus prescribed, after the same shall have been promulgated as prescribed in the by-laws, shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five cents, nor more than fifty cents for each and every such violation.

Promulgation of Regulations.

ARTICLE 23. The rules and regulations established by the Directors for the well ordering and government of the Library, and other apartments of the Athenæum, shall be promulgated by being kept suspended in some suitable place in each room, and shall be subject to revision by the Proprietors in regular meeting.

Special Meetings.

ARTICLE 24. Upon application of five of the Proprietors, the Directors shall call special meetings of the Proprietors. The Directors may also call special meetings whenever they may think it necessary: but at all such meetings, no business shall be transacted, the purport of which was not inserted in the notification.

Notice of Special Meetings.

ARTICLE 25. Notifications, calling special meetings of the Proprietors, shall be signed by the Directors, or the major part of them, and shall be posted up in some conspicuous place in the Library Room of the Athenæum, ten days before the day designated for such meeting; and shall be published in two, at least, of the public newspapers printed in Portland.

Annual Subscribers.

ARTICLE 26. Subscribers shall, with the approbation of the Directors, be admitted to the privilege of the Library, on paying the sum of eight dollars per annum, in advance, to the Treasurer.

Penalties against Life Subscribers.

ARTICLE 27. If any life subscriber shall neglect for one month after the same becomes due, to pay his annual tax of five dollars and all fines which shall have been assessed upon him, for any breach of the by-laws, his privileges in the institution shall be suspended until payment is made: And if payment be not made within two years, his right shall be deemed and taken to have been abandoned, and shall become absolutely forfeit to the Corporation.

Penalties against Proprietors.

ARTICLE 28. If any Proprietor shall neglect to pay any instalment on his share as the same shall become due, or if any Proprietor shall neglect to pay, on or before the first Monday of January in each year, all his fines, and the taxes and assessments which may be due on his share, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to send to such delinquent Proprietor a bill, containing a statement in writing, in words or figures, of the amount of such instalment so due, and of such fines, taxes, or assessments so due and unpaid. And in case such instalment, or such fines, taxes, or assessments shall not, within thirty days after personal notice, be paid to the Treasurer, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to advertise such share for sale, by posting up a notice to that effect, expressing the number of the share, in some conspicuous place in the Library Room of the Athenæum. And in case such instalments, or such fines, taxes, or assessments shall not, within thirty days from the time of posting up said notice, be paid to the Treasurer, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause said share of such delinquent Proprietor to be sold by auction to the highest bidder.

Provided always, that at any such sale, and immediately after the highest bidder shall be ascertained, the Directors may, if they think proper, exercise the right of pre-emption, reserved to the corporation, and purchase said share for the use and benefit of the Corporation. And in case the proceeds of said share shall exceed the amount of the instalment due thereon, if any, and of all outstanding fines, taxes, and assessments with which said share is chargeable, and of all liens which the corporation has on said share,—the surplus, after the payment of such instalment, fines, taxes, and assessments, and discharging said liens, shall be paid over to such delinquent Proprietor. And a certificate of the proceedings, signed by the Directors for the time being, or by a majority of them, and attested by the Secretary, being entered of record on the book of transfer, shall convey to the purchaser as full and perfect a title to the share so sold, as the delinquent Proprietor had to the same.

Provided nevertheless, that when the taxes, fines, and assessments on any share shall amount to the pre-emption price, the share shall revert to the Athenæum, and may be cancelled or sold by the Directors; but the Treasurer shall give to the Proprietor of such share thirty days notice, so that he may pay up such fines, assessments, or other dues.

Provided, however, that whenever any delinquent Proprietor shall have removed from the city of Portland, or shall be dead, it shall be sufficient for the Secretary to give such notice, and in such form, as the Directors for the time being shall in each case, by a vote on record for that purpose, prescribe and ordain.

Circulation of Books.

ARTICLE 29. All books belonging to the Library, excepting such only as ought not in the opinion of the Directors, from their value or scarcity, to be removed from the Library Room, or are not otherwise proper for circulation, may be borrowed from the Library by Proprietors and Life-subscribers only, under such rules and regulations sanctioned by such fines and penalties as may be prescribed in the by-laws.

Property Deposited not removable without Permission.

ARTICLE 30. No books or other articles deposited with or loaned to the corporation, shall be removed from the library, or other place of deposit, except by permission of the person depositing or lending the same, on penalty of a forfeiture of double the value of the book or article so taken, the value to be estimated by the Directors.

Admission of Strangers.

ARTICLE 31. Proprietors, life-subscribers, and annual subscribers may introduce strangers to all the apartments of the Athenæum, by entering their names and places of abode on a blank book, kept in the Library for that purpose, under such regulations as the Directors may prescribe; but no inhabitant or resident in town, excepting a proprietor or subscriber, shall be admitted to the use of the Rooms, unless by vote of the Proprietors or of the Board of Directors.

No Conversation.

ARTICLE 32. No conversation shall be allowed in the Library or other apartments, to the disturbance of any persons present.

Restriction on taking and keeping Books.

ARTICLE 33. No person shall borrow from the Library more than two books at a time, nor keep them longer than four weeks, on penalty of five cents for each volume for every week's detention after that time.

Mode of taking Books.

ARTICLE 34. No book shall be taken from or returned to the Library, without the knowledge of the person whose duty it shall be to deliver and receive books, or of his agent, by him for that purpose specially appointed, nor shall any book be delivered but to the order in writing of a Proprietor or Life-subscriber, or to them personally.

Duty of Librarian.

ARTICLE 35. The person having the custody of the Library shall keep an account of every book borrowed from the Library, with the time of taking and returning the same. He shall carefully notice the condition of each volume, as borrowed and returned, and shall make a minute of any injury, defacing, or marring, it may have received while in the custody of the borrower, and shall lay the same before the Directors as soon after as may be.

Fine for lending Books.

ARTICLE 36. If any person entitled to borrow books from the Library, shall lend any book belonging to the Athenæum to any person whatever, other than the immediate members and inmates of his own family, he shall forfeit his right of borrowing for a period not less than six months, as the Directors shall determine.

Return of Books.

ARTICLE 37. All books shall be returned to the Library on or before the last Monday of December, annually, on penalty of twenty-five cents for each volume retained.

Penalty for injuring or removing Books, &c.

ARTICLE 38. If any annual subscriber shall wilfully or wantonly injure, mar, or deface any newspaper, journal, or other publication belonging to the Athenæum, or shall remove any article whatever belonging to the Corporation, from the room in which it shall be deposited, he shall, in addition to making good all damages, be absolutely excluded from the rooms of the Athenæum for the remainder of his year.

Directors authorised to loan Books in special cases.

ARTICLE 39. Under special circumstances and in extraordinary cases, the Directors may authorise any particular person to borrow from the Library any book containing facts or principles important to be known and necessary to be used, in prosecuting any public inquiry or investigation; but such license shall not authorize any person to retain any book so borrowed, for a longer period than one week.

Proceedings in case of Damage to Property.

ARTICLE 40. All damage done to any property of the corporation shall be fairly appraised by the Directors for the time being; and if the person chargable therewith, neglects or refuses, on request of the Treasurer, to pay the amount as appraised by the Directors, it shall be the duty of the Directors forthwith to take legal measures to obtain indemnity. And where such damage shall have been done by a Proprietor or life subscriber, or by any person introduced to the Athenæum by such Proprietor or subscriber, the same proceedings may be had for neglect to pay such assessed damages, or such judgment as may have been recovered, as are prescribed for delinquency in paying fines, taxes, or other assessments.

Admission of additional Proprietors.

ARTICLE 41. The subscription paper for shares in the Athenæum, shall be open under the superintendence and management of the Directors, to receive additional subscribers for shares, until the first annual meeting of the Proprietors, after which no new proprietors shall be admitted but by vote of the Corporation in regular meeting, or by vote of the Directors, five at least concurring therein.

ADDITIONAL BY-LAW, ADOPTED JAN. 26, 1838.

No Proprietor, who shall neglect or refuse to pay any instalment, assessment, tax, or fine, after the same shall have become due, and he shall have been called on for payment, shall be allowed the privileges of the Institution until such dues shall have been paid to the Treasurer.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS.

1. Books may be borrowed or returned every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, from two until five o'clock P. M., or until sunset, when the sun sets before six.

2. Two volumes may be borrowed at a time.

3. Books which have not been in the Library one year, can be retained only two weeks, unless they be larger than octavos—and Reviews can be retained one week only, while they remain unbound—all others may be retained four weeks. If not seasonably returned, a penalty is incurred of ten cents for a quarto or larger volume, and of five cents for each volume of a smaller size, for every week's or fraction of a week's detention.

4. The same volume cannot be borrowed by the same proprietor twice in succession, if another proprietor shall have left his name for the volume with the Librarian; nor can the same volume be borrowed more than twice in succession, unless by written permission of a majority of the Directors.

5. If any book is written in, scrawled, marked, or underscored, while in the hands of a Proprietor, he shall incur a penalty of twenty-five cents, and shall be further liable, at the discretion of the Directors, to have the volume or set turned on his hands at the original cost.

6. Every volume about to be borrowed, shall be examined by the Librarian before delivering it, and again after it shall have been returned, and before placing it upon the shelves, in order to ascertain whether it has been defaced, written in, or injured in the hands of the borrower.
